

PROVING CORRUPTION IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

TUESDAY 10 APRIL 2018 | 8.30 am – 11.00 am
Shearman & Sterling LLP | 7 rue Jacques Bingen | 75017 Paris

The past decade has seen a marked increase in allegations of corruption by parties in both international arbitral proceedings and in proceedings to set aside or enforce arbitral awards. As these allegations multiply, arbitral tribunals and domestic courts are increasingly tasked with tackling this issue. How arbitrators and courts approach a corruption allegation will often determine the outcome of a case.

This roundtable will address evidence and standards of proof before arbitral tribunals and various domestic courts from State, institutional, academic and arbitral perspectives.

With the participation of:

- Nicola Bonucci
Director for Legal Affairs, OECD
- Maksym Kodunov
Director of International Disputes Department,
Ministry of Justice of Ukraine
- Michael Ostrove
Partner, Global Head of International Arbitration, DLA Piper
